RECENT CONSULTANCIES

(2004):

A lead role with the Office of Multicultural Affairs, the Government of Western Australia, in planning and developing the Racism and Substantive Equality Programme. This is an extensive innovation in applying the principles of differentiated citizenship to the practice and performance of all public sector departments and agencies in Western Australia. A Substantive Equality Unit has been established within the Equal Opportunity Commission to oversee the development and implementation of this policy.

(2003):

With Ms. Bren Torry the production of a programme of independent learning on Transcultural Health Care for Her Majesty's Prison Service. This involved pilot work with prison personnel and the production of a CD-rom based programme of self-directed learning.

(2002):

A strategic review for the Joseph Rowntree Trust of a programme of investment in anti-racist policy and practice.
