

Department of Social Sciences and Humanities

- Seminar Series

15th October 2008 - 4.30pm onwards - Room D2, Richmond Building

Title: 'Jersey and the Politics of Child Abuse'

Speaker: Dr Jim Goddard, Senior Lecturer in Social Policy, University of Bradford

This presentation will explore recent developments in relation to suspected homicide and child abuse in children's homes on Jersey. As well as researching issues affecting adult care leavers, Jim is an executive member of the UK Care Leavers' Association. He has been helping to develop an equivalent organisation in Jersey and has visited the island frequently in the past six months, meeting with politicians, lawyers, the police, social care professionals and adult care leavers.

12th November 2008 - 4.30pm onwards - Room D1, Richmond Building

Title: 'Expressing Yourself: A Feminist Analysis of Expressing breast milk'

Speaker: Dr Sally Johnson, Lecturer in Psychology, University of Bradford

This presentation will explore how women manage breast feeding through the practice of expressing breast milk in early infant feeding.

10th December 2008 - 4.30pm onwards - Room D1, Richmond Building

Title: 'Tackling Health Inequalities and the role of community development practice'

Speaker: Dr Christine Horrocks and Dr Nancy Kelly, Senior Lecturers in Psychology, University of Bradford

This presentation is based upon research which explored the impact of community development practice on psycho-social wellbeing.

---

All sessions are free of charge
No pre-booking required
For further information contact
b.m.featherstone1@bradford.ac.uk