Returning a book

The Self Return Machine is located next to the Library entrance by the cash machine.

To start the returns process press 'Return books'.

Now open your book so the barcode is visible.

Slide the book through the return machine.

The title of your returned book will then be displayed on screen.

Continue using this method to return more books.

Once you have finished press ‘Quit’.

The books are now removed from your library account.

For more information visit our website www.brad.ac.uk/library