6. LO6 Act as an ethical professional who is aware of the cultural and social contexts in which law and business operate and is responsive to changing environments

Learning, Teaching and Assessment Strategy

This module is taught in 1 hour lectures and 2 hour weekly workshop blocks. Lectures will introduce relevant legal and ethical principles to unpine workshop preparation. You will be allocated to small groups in order to carry out preparation and research for workshops and your main assessment. In every workshop you will be presented with a problem which will have business, legal and ethical implications and issues. The Workshops tutors facilitate discussions and debates and help you explore the issues raised.

Assessment is through group work which takes the form of a complex case study which you will need to analyse (LO2). As well as assessing your analysis we will also be assessing your development as an ethical professional and member of your group through a reflective log which must be submitted as part of the case study analysis (LO3, 4, 5, 6). You will also sit a 1 hour multiple choice exam which will test your knowledge of legal issues as they relate to business and business issues as they relate to law (LO1).
