Module Aims
You will be introduced to the concept of a learning organisation, the strategies that can be deployed to help develop learning organisations, and how to build a culture that encourages learning for the benefit of the business.

Outline Syllabus
Organisational structure and group structures.
Developing effective group working.
Management styles and management control.
Culture, motivation, leadership, power, role-playing and working in groups.
Module Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this module, students will be able to...

1. a) develop a broad understanding of the concept of a learning organisation, the key drivers in its development, and the concepts of organisational culture and the learning organisation.

2. a) identify the complex interrelationships between individuals, their motivations and the organisation's mission.

3. a) communicate arguments coherently in writing and work co-operatively and engage in shared learning with others.

Learning, Teaching and Assessment Strategy

Theories and underpinning concepts will be presented through a series of lectures. All lectures will be followed by a group discussion to further explore the issues raised. Inter-sessional reading will prepare you to make informed contributions to seminar discussions.
