Learning, Teaching and Assessment Strategy

Learning is through the medium of lectures reinforced by staff led seminars. We will be using a blended approach of on-line synchronous lectures and tutorials and face to face tutorials These will use practical application of cases and case studies with oral feedback given in the class.

The lectures and seminars will take a diverse array of forms and will include elements of traditional "chalk and talk" delivery alongside more interactive inclusive lectures. You will be directed to appropriate study text and cases and will be set tasks to monitor your progress in addition to formal assessment. All teaching will be supported by information supplied on Canvas.

The learning and teaching outcomes are aligned to the assessment strategies but it is very important to realise that all elements of the course, including lectures, seminars and independent self and group study, are essential in ensuring that these learning outcomes are fully and exhaustively fulfilled. The choice of the learning and teaching strategies are designed to ensure that you are as active as possible with an emphasis on collaborative learning
